

MAUREEN PEELER

After being diagnosed with cervical cancer in 1996 and given a life expectancy of 1 year to live if it went untreated, Maureen Peeler is currently a proud, cancer-free mother and grandmother of 3. As if surviving cancer wasn't inspiring enough, she is using her life experiences and God given talents to lead by example and help those in need, through encouragement, inspiration and mentor-ship. Join Maureen as she shares her journey and relays some important messages surrounding health, care and overall well-being.
